

Louis Boulanger, CFA
Founder & Director, Louis Boulanger Now Limited

- Louis holds a B.Sc. from Laval University in Canada and is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA). He retired as an actuary, but remains active as a wealth adviser.
- Prior to coming to New Zealand in 1986, Louis worked for nine years with a global consulting firm based in Montreal, Canada. In New Zealand, Louis worked for another global consulting firm for 18 years, including as Chief Executive of New Zealand operations for five years.
- In 2004, Louis took time off to study monetary history, be with his family and travel around the world. Later that year, he launched his private practice. Louis's practice provides independent investment advice to wholesale clients only and bullion services to private and institutional clients of all sizes.
- He speaks regularly at investment and private wealth conferences on the role of gold for real wealth preservation and true portfolio diversification, and has been enjoying doing so in more than 20 countries over the past 15 years.
- His firm is an authorized dealer with BMG Group, based in Canada, facilitating the wholesale purchase and sale of bullion for clients on the London Market. Professional custodial storage services are also available to clients not wishing to take delivery.
- Louis founded CFA Society New Zealand in 2000, was President until 2004 and a Director until 2010. He remains a Regular Member of the Society and of CFA Institute.
- Louis lives in Auckland with his wife Louise and has two adult sons, both married.
